11469	Planning decisions by Wealden District Council – for information only None

11470	Planning Updates/General Information – for information only The chair gave information on the meeting that she had attended with the clerk and the developer representative for Kitewood which already had outline planning permission and had been allowed to ask questions regarding the landscaping and overall reserved matters. The committee commented that there was a lack of school places and when the Kitewood development came forward where would the children go to as all of the local school would be over subscribed. The clerk stated that she would email the relevant authorities to seek a response to the committees concerns and report back to the committee when a response had been received.
